

Technology Paper Awards

Logos Bible Software and the Society of Biblical Literature announce two sets of awards for papers that creatively use technology in exploring questions of grammar and syntax in biblical studies: one focusing on the Hebrew Bible, the other on the Greek New Testament. The contests are open to all those engaged in the study of those disciplines, and prizes will be awarded in both areas for student and faculty/professional categories. A total of twelve awards will be given.

Awards:

Hebrew Bible Grammar and Syntax Paper Awards

STUDENT

First Place:

$1,000 cash
$1,000 Logos software credit
$200 SBL book credit

Two Honorable Mention:

$500 in cash (each)
$500 in Logos software credit
$100 SBL book credit

FACULTY/PROFESSIONAL

First Place:

$1,000 cash
$1,000 Logos software credit
$200 SBL book credit

Two Honorable Mention:

$500 in cash (each)
$500 in Logos software credit
$100 SBL book credit

Greek New Testament Grammar and Syntax Paper Awards

STUDENT

First Place:

$1,000 cash
$1,000 Logos software credit
$200 SBL book credit

Two Honorable Mention:

$500 in cash (each)
$500 in Logos software credit
$100 SBL book credit

FACULTY/PROFESSIONAL

First Place:

$1,000 cash
$1,000 Logos software credit
$200 SBL book credit

Two Honorable Mention:

$500 in cash (each)
$500 in Logos software credit
$100 SBL book credit

Prizes will be awarded for each contest in a student and a faculty/professional category, for a total of four first-place prizes and eight honorable-mention prizes.

Deadline: 1 May 2007

www.sblawards.com

SBL
SOCIETY of BIBLICAL LITERATURE

 LOGOS
Bible Software